Lindsley gave an illustrated talk on "Bird and Mammal Photography." Meeting then adjourned.

November:- The regular monthly meeting was held in the club room at the Museum, Wednesday evening, Nov. 2. The Acting Secretary, A. M. Winslow, presided in the absence of the President and Vice President. As a quorum was not present, no business was transacted. After listening to reports from the Observation Committee and an informal discussion of experiences, the meeting adjourned.

December:- The regular meeting was held in the club room at the Museum on Wednesday evening, Dec. 7, President Hall presiding. As no quorum was present no business was transacted. Mr. C. J. Albrecht gave some interesting observations of Microtus and moles near Kent, Wn., and a talk and demonstration on the use of the Bow and Arrow in Modern Hunting. The meeting then adjourned to reconvene at the call of the President before the January meeting, when a quorum could be mustered, in order to nominate officers for the coming year and to transact other business.

On Dec. 21, the adjourned meeting of Dec. 7, was called to order by the President at the University Commons at 6.30 p.m. A quorum being present the meeting proceeded to the consideration of unfinished business. The minutes of the previous meetings were read and approved. The following were elected to membership: Mr. Theed Pearse, Courtenay, B.C.; John H. McGrath, Seattle, Wn.; Carl L. Kapp, McKenna, Wn. Nominations of officers for the coming year were made as follows: F. S. Hall, Seattle, President; J. Hooper Bowles, Tacoma, Wn., Vice President; and A. M. Winslow, Seattle, Secretary-Treasurer. A committee consisting of S. F. Rathbun, Trevor Kincaid and Horace Gunthorp was appointed to investigate the feasibility of printing "The Murrelet" in more permanent form. Meeting adjourned.

January:- The regular monthly meeting, which was also the Annual Meeting, was held in the banquet room at the University Commons, U. of W. Campus, Jan. 4, 1922. After partaking of an excellent dinner, the members adjourned to the club room at the Museum, where the meeting was called to order by President Hall. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Committee reports were then made, after which the Secretary-Treasurer read his report for the past year (1921), which was accepted. The meeting then proceeded to the election of officers with the following result: for President, F. S. Hall of Seattle; for Vice President, J. Hooper Bowles of Tacoma; for Secretary-Treasurer, A. M. Winslow of Seattle. Mr. S. F. Rathbun presented an amendment to the constitution of the Club, providing that the word Club in Article I be changed from Club to Society. Action on this amendment will, according to the Constitution and By-laws, be taken at the next regular meeting. The program of the evening followed, with short talks by Theo. H. Sheffer of Puyallup, J. B. Hurley of Yakima, Geo. G. Cantwell and C. J. Albrecht. Adjournment.
